Kevin Lemoine

Deputy Assistant Commissioner for Academic Affairs and Research Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board 1200 E. Anderson Lane Austin, Texas 78752 512-427-6226 Kevin.Lemoine@thecb.state.tx.us

As Deputy Assistant Commissioner, Kevin Lemoine serves as chief operations officer for the Division of Academic Affairs and Research. His primary responsibilities include coordination of workforce and academic program review, oversight of various grant programs, and coordination of legislative inquiries. Lemoine also provides leadership on statewide policy initiatives related to undergraduate education, graduate education, and distance education.

Lemoine has been instrumental in launching several major state-funded grant projects related to enhancing learning and instruction, including the Texas Course Redesign Project and the Professional Development Modules Project. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Texas Distance Learning Association.

Prior to joining the Coordinating Board staff in 2004, Lemoine was Assistant Director of University Extension at The University of Texas at Austin. Before that, he was a faculty member at the University of Minnesota-Twin Cities where he taught courses in French linguistics and second language teaching methodologies, and he served as the Director of the French language program. He also has taught at the Université de Nice in Nice, France, and at the Université Claude Bernard Lyon 1 in Villeurbanne, France.

Lemoine received his Ph.D. and Master's in French and Spanish Linguistics from The University of Texas at Austin and his Bachelor's in French from the University of Southern Mississippi.
