

Harold W. Hahn
Vice Chair, Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board
Chairman and CEO
Rocky Mountain Mortgage Company

Harold W. Hahn, of El Paso, Texas, was appointed to a three-year term on the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board by Governor Rick Perry. In February 2011, Mr. Hahn was appointed by Governor Perry to serve as Vice Chair of the Board. He also serves as Chair of the Committee on Closing the Gaps, and as a member of the Committee on Agency Operations.

He is chairman and CEO of Rocky Mountain Mortgage Company, a mortgage banking company serving the west Texas and southern New Mexico markets. The company is active in land development, residential construction lending, loan origination, and loan servicing.

Most recently, Mr. Hahn served as chairman of the Camino Real Regional Mobility Authority, the primary entity responsible for major transportation infrastructure development in the El Paso region. Additionally, Mr. Hahn serves as a director of the Greater El Paso Chamber of Commerce, a director of the Yucca Council Boy Scouts of America, and is a member of the Paso Del Norte Group. He is a past president of the El Paso Mortgage Bankers Association and a past director of the Texas Mortgage Bankers Association. He has also served as an advisory director for J.P. Morgan Chase Bank in El Paso.

Mr. Hahn has been awarded the Mortgage Banker of the Year by the El Paso Mortgage Bankers Association, and was awarded the Sportsman of the Year by the El Paso Chapter of Ducks Unlimited. He graduated from Eastern New Mexico University in 1973 with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Finance.