

July 31 Deadline Set for Math and Science Scholars Loan Repayment Program Applications

Austin, Texas, June 29, 2017—Today the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board announces the July 31 application deadline for the Math and Science Scholars Loan Repayment Program. The purpose of the program is to encourage teachers, who demonstrated high academic achievement as math or science majors, to teach these subjects in Texas public schools for a period of eight years. The first four years must be at Texas public schools that receive federal funding under Title I, Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965.

The Math and Science Scholars Loan Repayment Program has $1,287,500 available for approximately 250 awards. Program information and application requirements are located on the Coordinating Board website under the Math and Science Scholars Loan Repayment Program. Applicants must complete, print and mail the PDF application.

###

THECB Mission Statement

The mission of the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board is to provide leadership and coordination for the Texas higher education system and to promote access, affordability, quality, success, and cost efficiency through 60x30TX, resulting in a globally competitive workforce that positions Texas as an international leader.